

TVS works in partnership with Texas schools. As a result, the school keeps the ADA funding issued by the state for each student enrolled in a TVS course. TVS is not a credit granting agency, the school gives the grade and credit for courses taken by students. TVS provides Texas certified instructors who have been trained to teach in the on-line classroom. All courses offered by TVS have gone through an intense TEKS alignment.